POLICE GIVING NORTH ENDERS NO REST THESE DAYS.

MUCH GOOD ALREADY DONE

WARRANTS FOR SEVERAL NEGLI-GENT PROPERTY OWNERS.

Work Already Accomplished, but There Is Still a Great Deal More to Be Done-Tons of Filth Removed.

The police are still after property owners and occupants of buildings in the North end who have failed to obey the order to clean up their premises. Tons of fith and rubbish have been hauled away from the streets and alleys of the North end, and yet the work of making that part of town as clean as it should be is not nearly completed. Many of the disease-breeding thoroughfares and rickety old buildings have seen cleansed of their filth, and a great deal of sickness has no doubt been prevented by the prompt action of the police and the superintendent of streets in ordering a general cleaning up. Warrants were issued by the clerk of the police court yesterday for the following persons, who have failed to obey the order to clean their premises: Dr. Flanders, 809 Pacific street; Thomas Grass, 413 East Third street; Joseph Abbetin, 511 East Third street; George Larmature, 405 East Third street; Joseph Sparcino, 303 East Third street; Alphonso Defino, 316 Oak street: H. P. Madden, agent for the property at 407 East Third street; Laura Kenerty at 407 East Third street; Laura Kennedy, Sophia Howard, Etta Hudson, George Williams and Emma Hurley, occupants of the building at 407 East Third street.

Nearly all of these warrants were served by Officers Noon and Wilson last night, and the persons arrested will appear in the police court to-day. This is the second batch of warrants that has been issued for North end property owners for failure to comply with the order to clean up their premises.

There are already eight acts. which it is known will be presented, and one or two more are expected. The amathe understanding that if their act merits it they will be given a chance to appear at the park regularly. Lulu McConnell and Marguerite Graham, the winners of the first medal, are now in the bill for this week, and during the week which begins with the matinee on Sunday afternoon James McConnell, the trick and fancy bicyclist, who won the first prize last Friday night, will give exhibitions in the band stand. Heartgraves and Watkins, the two men who did a clever aerial act last Friday, have been engaged for the same week, and they will appear in the band stand also. On account of the length of the programme the performance will begin promptly at $ o'clock.

ON THE MARKET.

Home Grown Grapes Already Selling for 4 Cents a Pound-Other Good Things.

The local market is full of home grown grapes that will sell to-day at 4 cents a pound, or 20 cents a basket. Outside of grapes the fruit offered is all shipped in. California is furnishing a bountiful supply of pears that sell for 30 cents a dozen, with of pears that sell for 30 cents a dozen, with several varieties of plums at the same price. Peaches sell for 20 cents a small basket, holding two quarts.

Tomatoes have struck the downward gaft in price, but have vastly improved in quality and will sell to-day at 10 cents a basket. They are all home grown and the supply promises to be unlimited. The best cantaloupes can be had at 35 cents a crate at two dozen and watermelons for 20 cents each. Both are home grown.

Vegetables are offered in such large quantities that in many cases farmers have to float a battleship before you came in here."

"Deed. Ah didn't, boss," stammered the negro, "I'h done signed the pledge years ago. Dem fumes from dat barrel did the work."

The negro's discomfiture was enjoyed by everybody about the station. He was given a bench in the detention room until he sobered up, while the jailer burned out the barrel and prepared it for a watering tank for prisoners in the holdover. Vegetables are offered in such large quantities that in many cases farmers have to haul-back home a big part of their loads, the supply being greater than the demand. The very best potatoes will sell to-day for 25 cents a bushel and sweet corn at 4 cents a dozen. Big heads of cabbage cost 5 cents each and cucumbers six for 5 cents. C. F. ### Charge Was Dismissed.

C. J. Pettibone, a driver in the employ of the Cramer Wall Paper and Paint Company, at 1229 Grand avenue, was in the police court yesterday morning to answer to a charge of careless driving. Pettibone was arrested as week ago by Officer Hogan for carelessly driving into a buggy owned by John C. Mahoney, at Eleventh and Walnut streets. A rear wheel was taken from Mr. Mahoney's vehicle, and it was otherwise damaged. The streets were crowded with vehicles and cable cars at the time, and Pettibone claims that the collision was purely accidental. Justice Spitz dismissed the case against Pettibone because he had been informed that he would be made the defendant in a civil action for damages.

Notorious Negro Dive Ordered Closed by Police-Thieving Women

Fined. Lulu Meyers and Ella Hall, the negro women who separated John Monroe, of Pittsville, from his roll of $55, were fined When Justice Spitz put in appearance in the police courtroom at 8 o'clock yesterday morning he found eight boys whose ages range from 10 to 15 years, standing in a row at the railing in front of his desk. They looked like a class in a country school, lined up in front of the judge; desk, and his honor thought there was trouble in store for him when he grufily remarked to one of them:

"What are you boys doing here? What have you been guilty of?"

"We played ball in the street," was the meek reply of the lad addressed, "and a policeman pinched the whole gang."

"Well, now, you look like Manning's Blues," was the tender and sympathetic response of the big-hearted justice, "and it would be a shame to persecute an aggregation as weak as they have shown themselves to be. Get out of here in a hurry."

And the boys donned their hats and scampered wildly out of the courtroom. They had been arrested on complaint of John T. Hope, of 1633 West Prospect place, for breaking a window glass in his residence while playing ball in the street.

He had the appearance of having tried to take a bath in a garbage barrel. His clothing was torn, his hat was stove in and his face was bruised and bleeding.

Officer Mansfield and Dr. Manahan picked him up in the rear of 219 Main street, where he had evidently lain in the hot sun all day. Some person had dumped a pail of swill on him, and he was about the most sorrowful looking sight that ever stood before the captain's desk at police headquarters. Connors was arrested Wednesday night for drunkenness, and was held for safe-keeping. Yesterday morning he was released, and as soon as he left the police station he proceeded to fill up again, and crawled into an alley and lay down to sleep off the effects of the liquor he had drunk. head to feet when he was led into police continues with unabated vigor. To-day we will offer 100 dozen elegant, new, handsome, silk front shirts, worth $1.00, at 50c apiece. They are made with soft, sleek, slippery, white bodies, cool and comfortable. They come in brocade white silk, pink, blue, green, black, brown, tan and old gold stripes. They're in all regular sizes, and they'll be found the next thing to a shirt waist (every chance they get). We're not losing any money on them; nor are we getting rich on them, either; but in the course of commercial events the man that makes our white shirts tried his hand (and also the hands that work in his factory) at making silk front shirts; and they looked so nice to him that he made too many, and we bought the "too many" part very cheap. That's all the tale there is to these shirts.

Weak, Nervous Men.

Nature intended man to be perfect, both mentally and physically. She endowed him with a capacity to reason and laid down certain simple rules of health. But few are guided by a better judgment. Men will continue to live lives of dissipation and excess. They defy nature, but the result is inevitable-weakness, nervous debility, lost manhood, sexual decay, etc. This condition, however, is partially the result of early folly, the stain of youthful indiscretions, or later excesses. It is this weakened condition of the nervous and general system that has yielded to my treatment after all others have failed. Dr. H. J. Whittier is conceded to be the leading and most successful specialist in blood, nervous, urinary and pelvic diseases. Consult him first and you will gain time, save money and avert years of suffering.
